

If I don't check the mail every day

Men will come and take all of my possessions

I can't prove it but I know this is your fault

Out for a walk

I saw something new on my walk today

Do you think there will keep being new things to see? Forever?

Later:

I'm so sick of these things

This is your fault too,
isn't it

There's a door in my house
that's always locked

I've never been able to find the key but I think I figured out where it is

You're lucky I'm a good person

At the gym

Shopping

Walking home

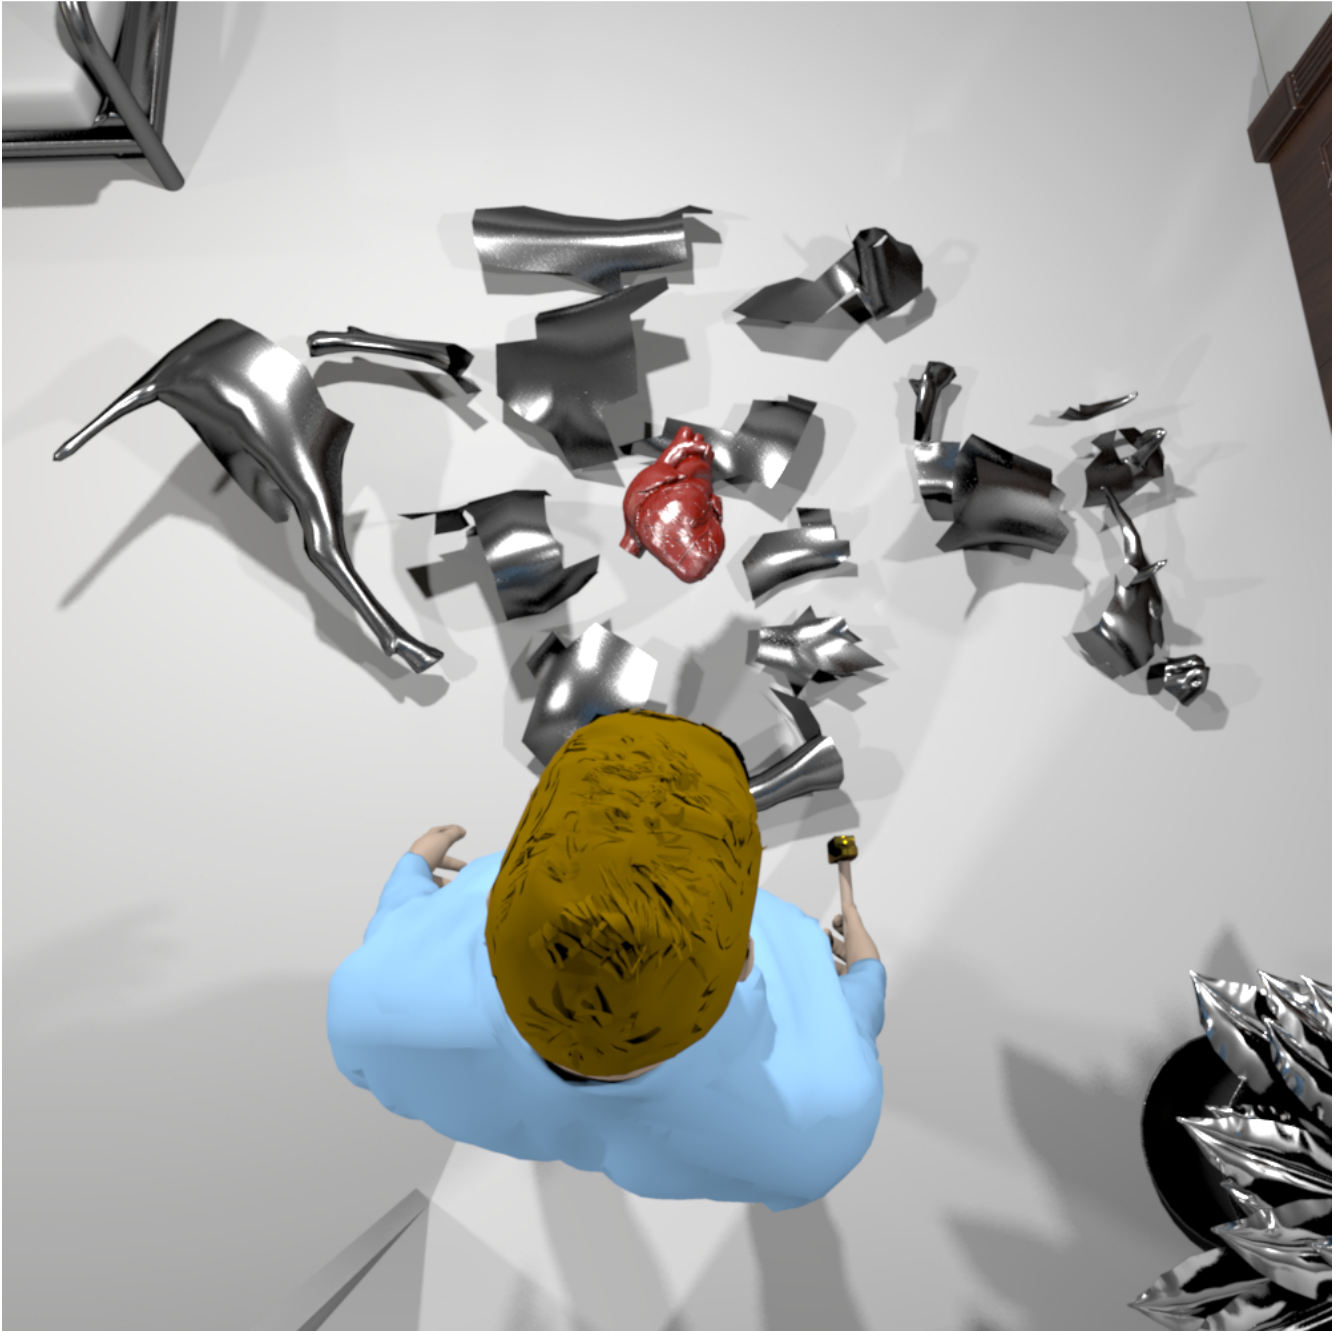

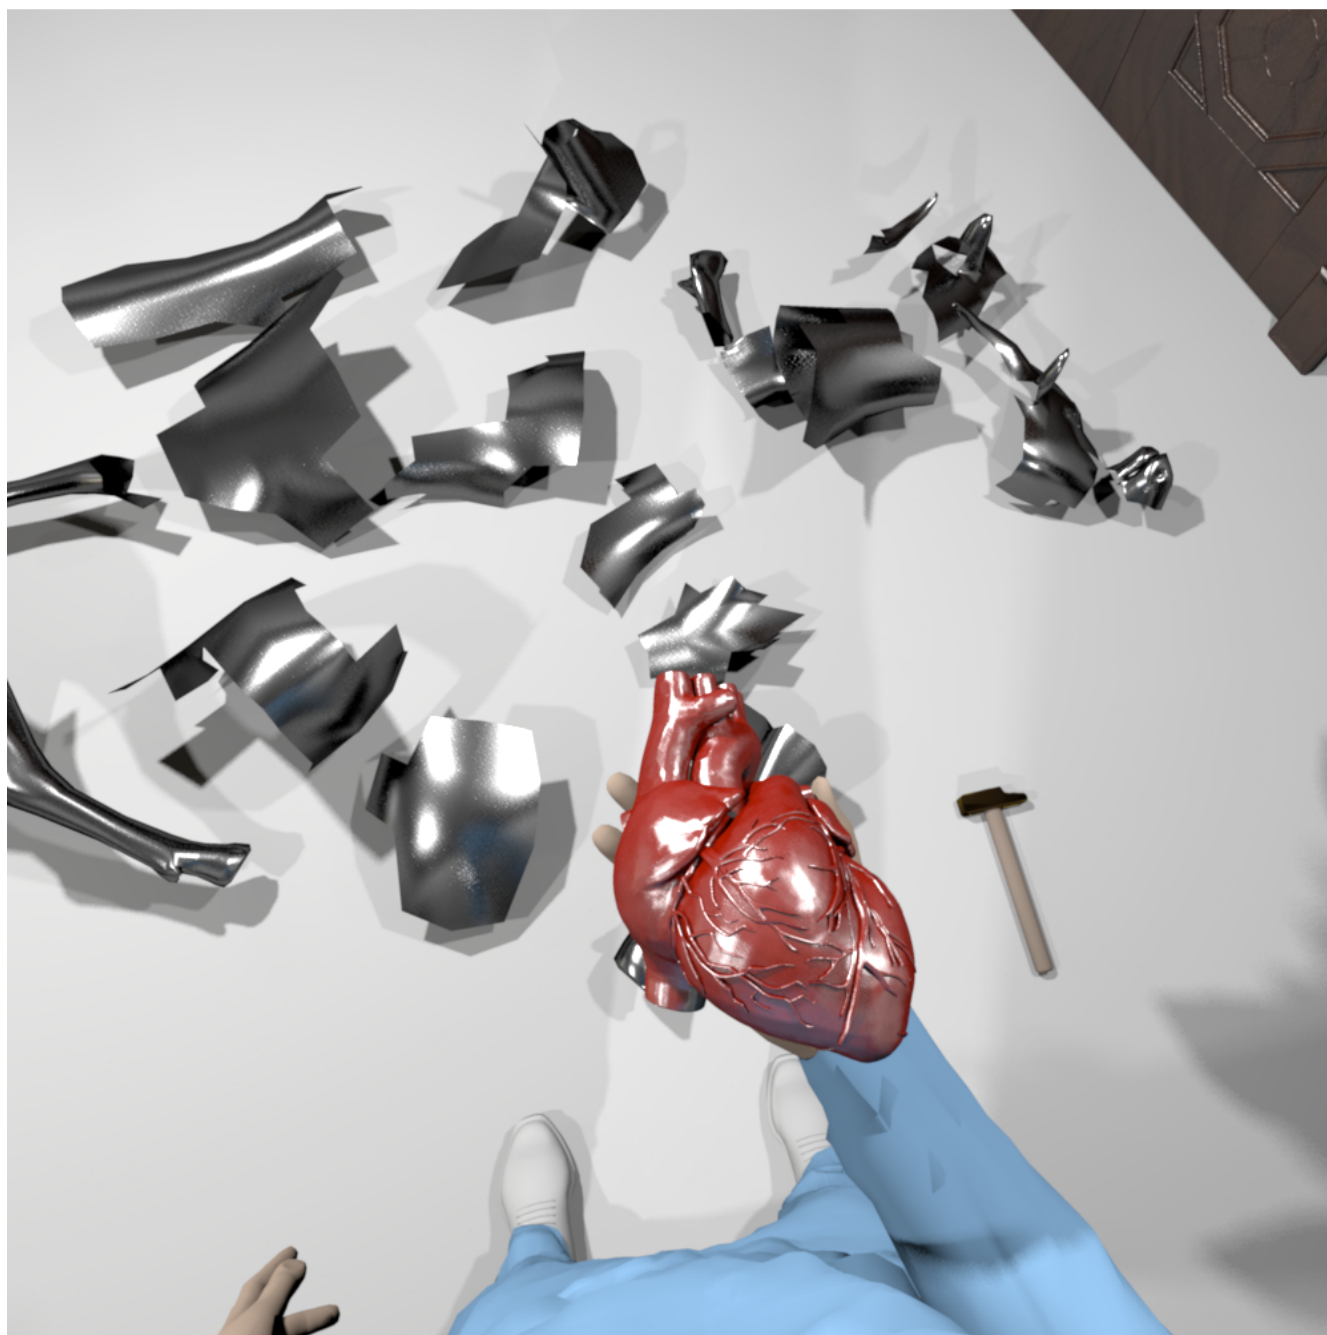

No key?
But I was so sure

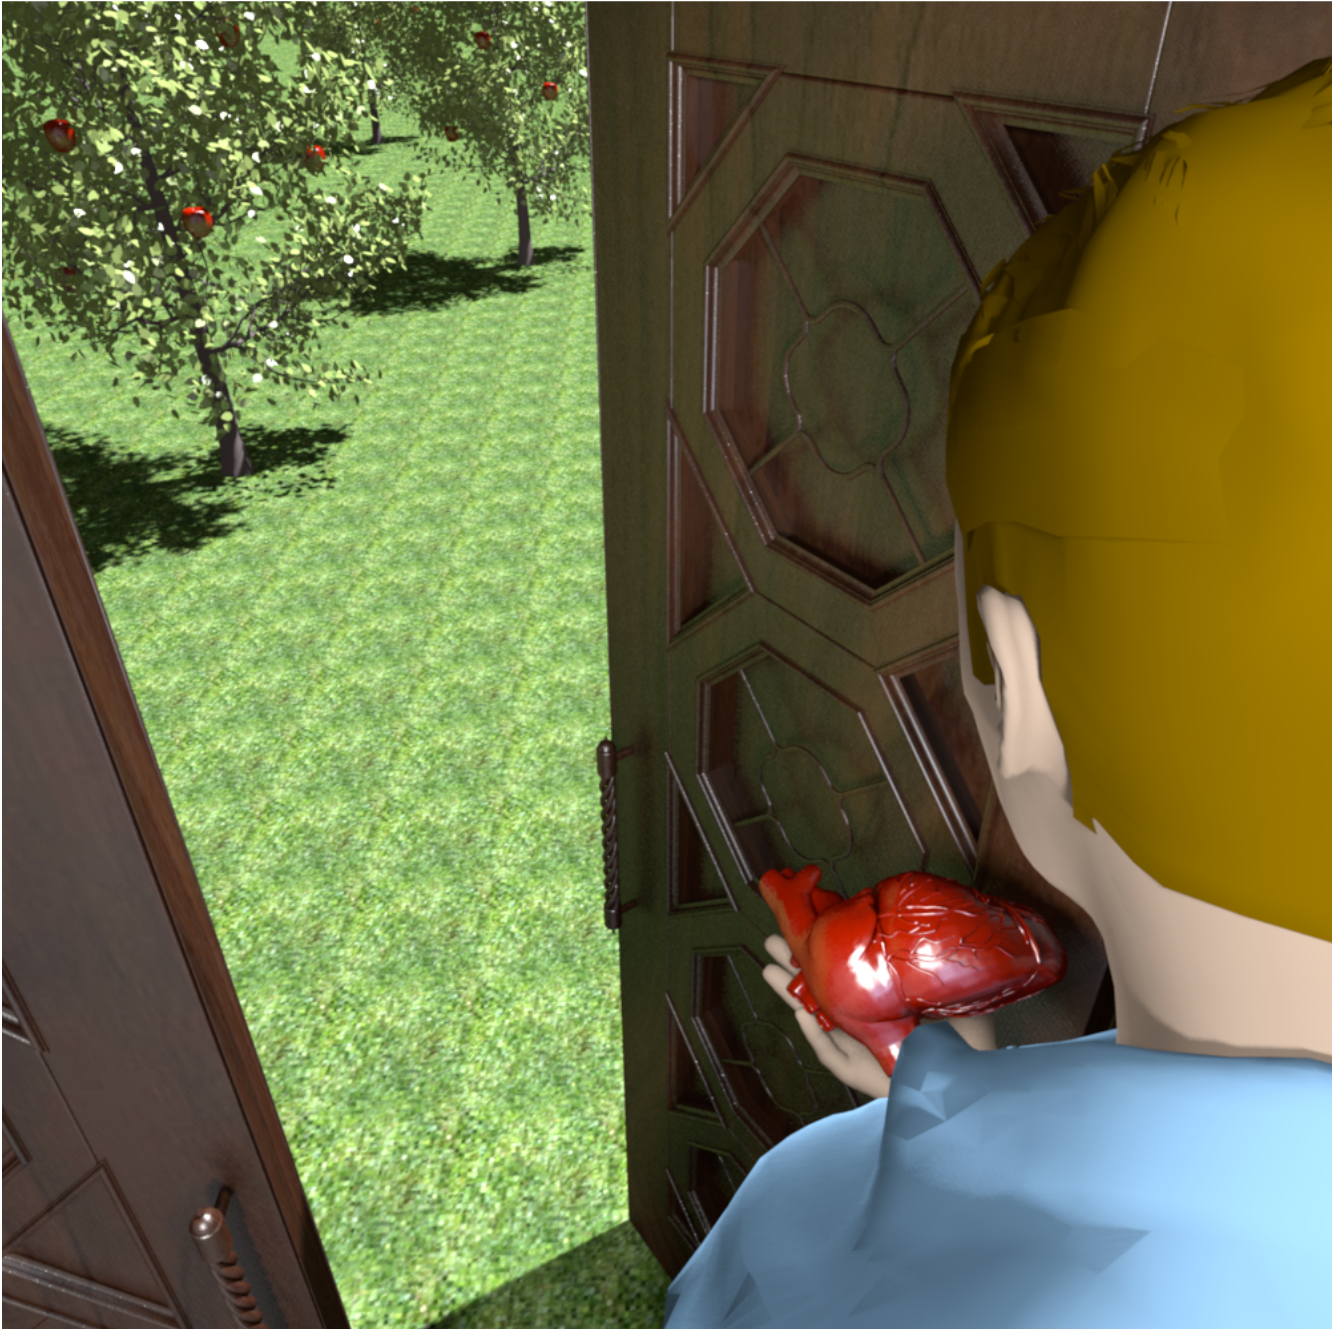

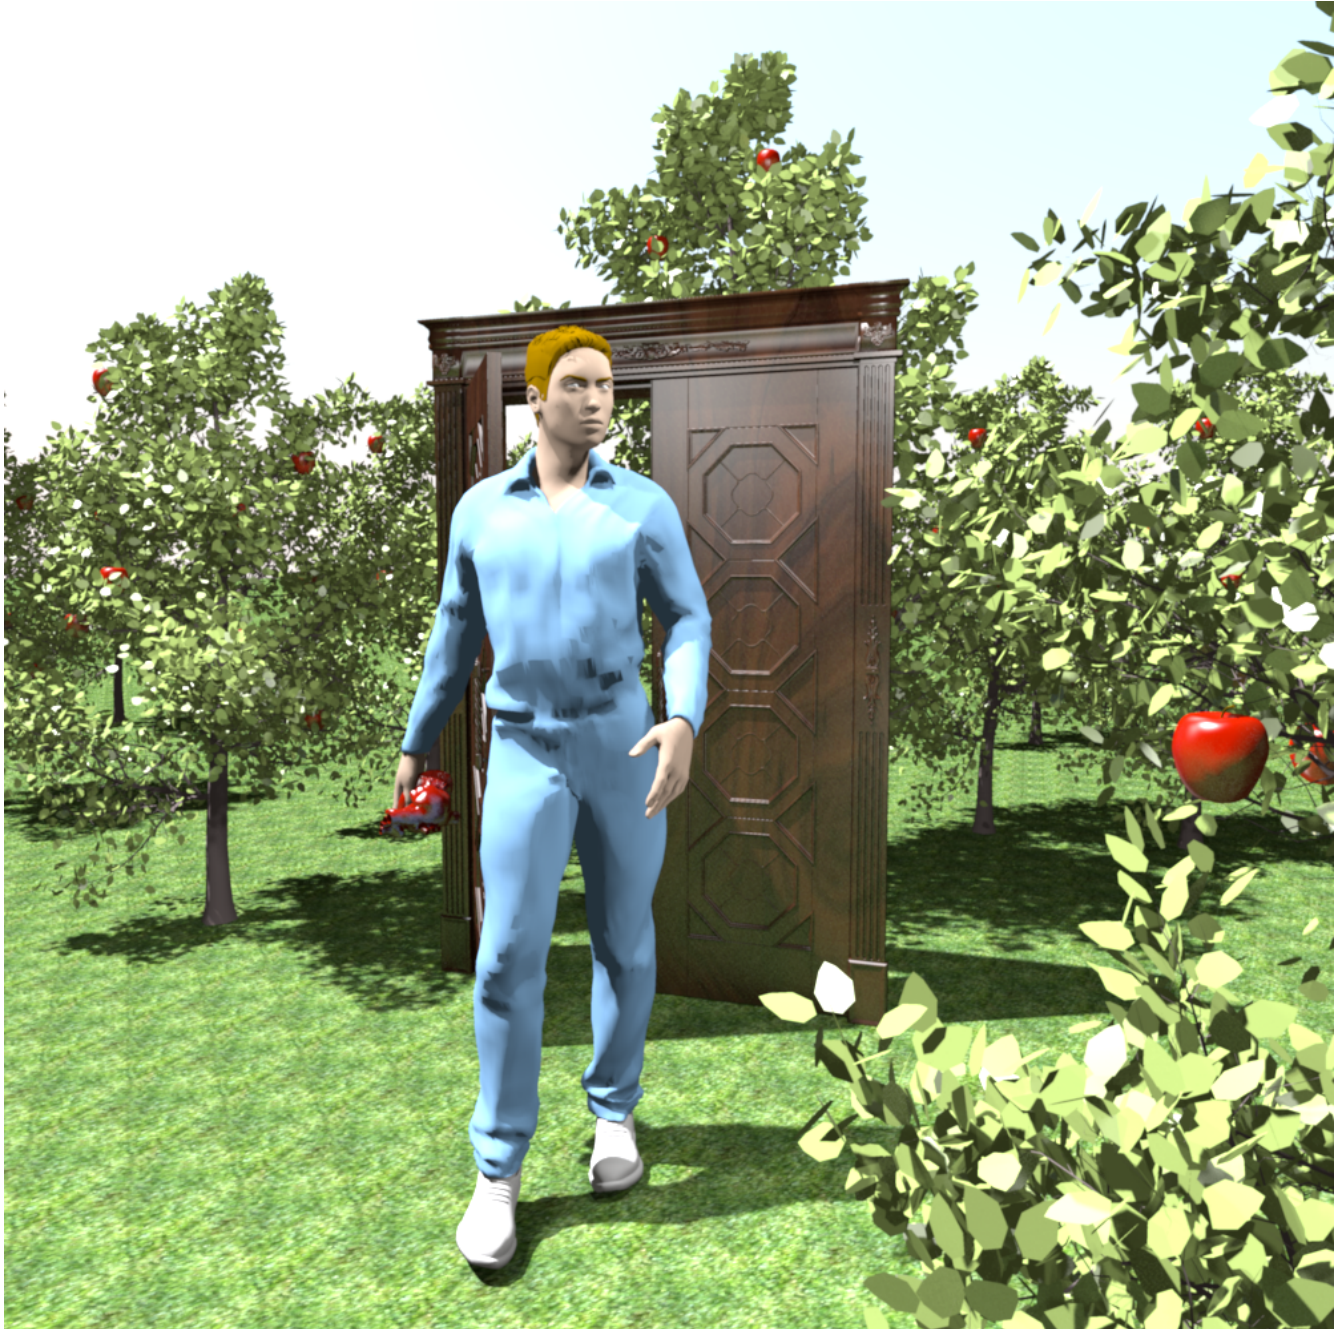

I wonder...

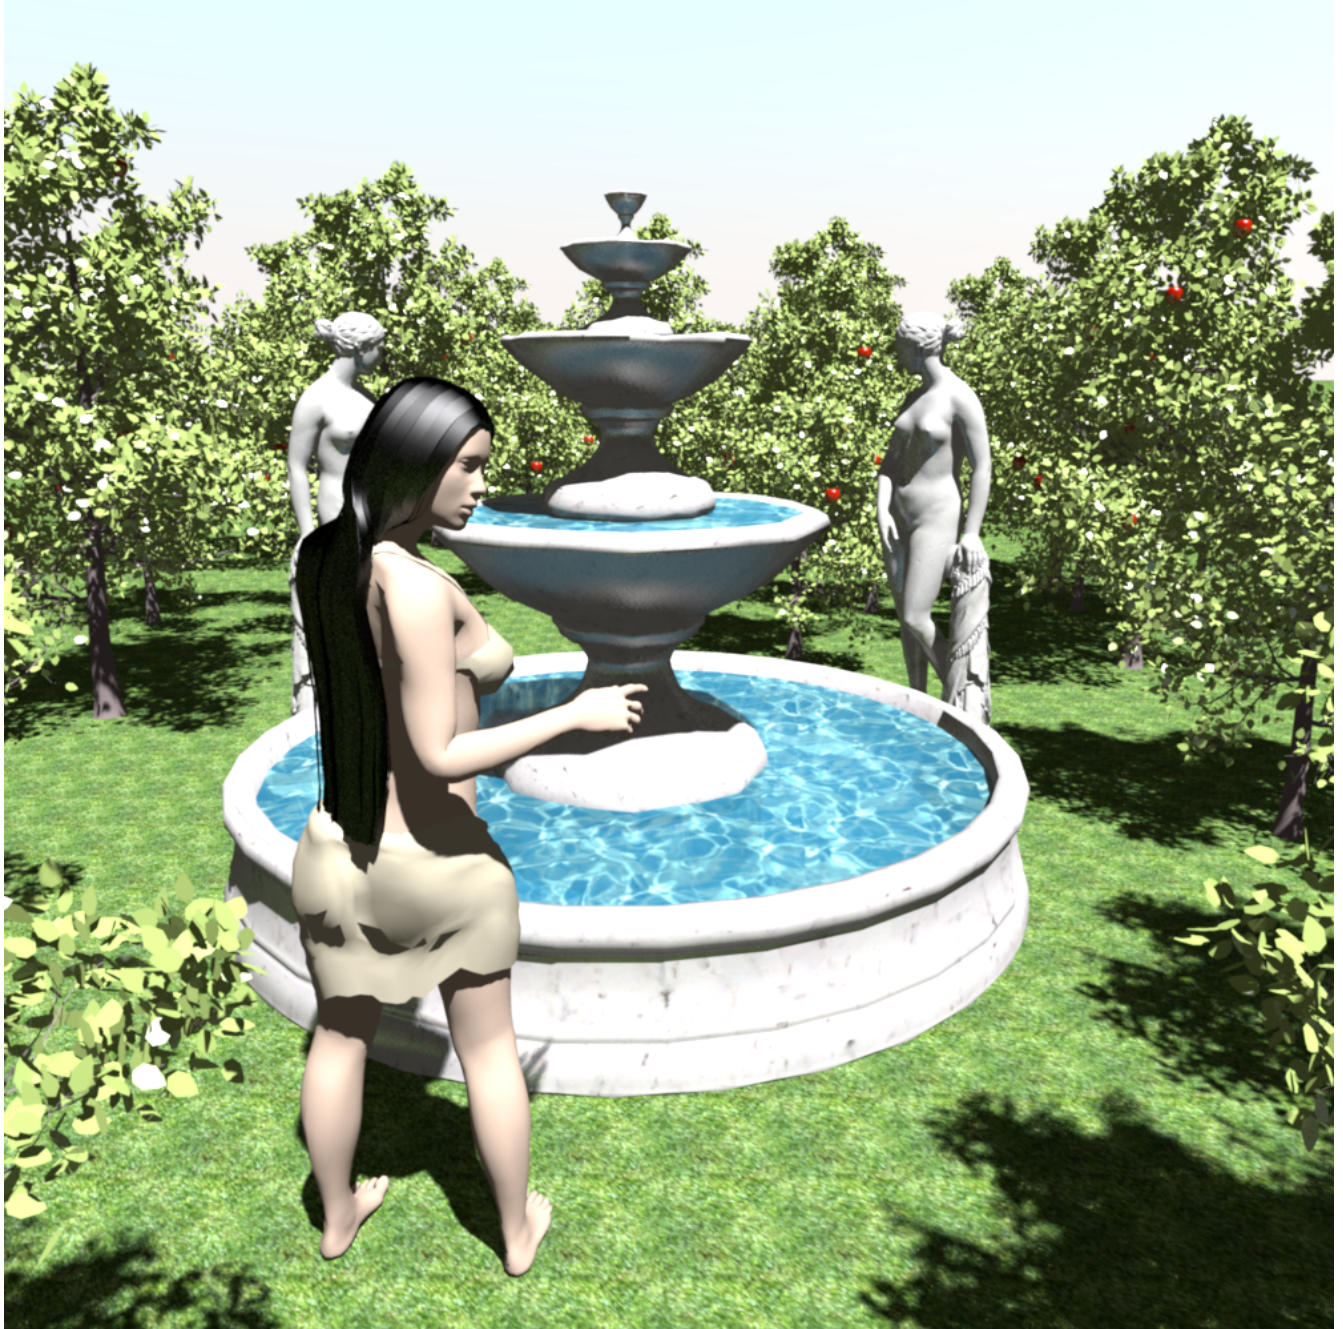

It worked!

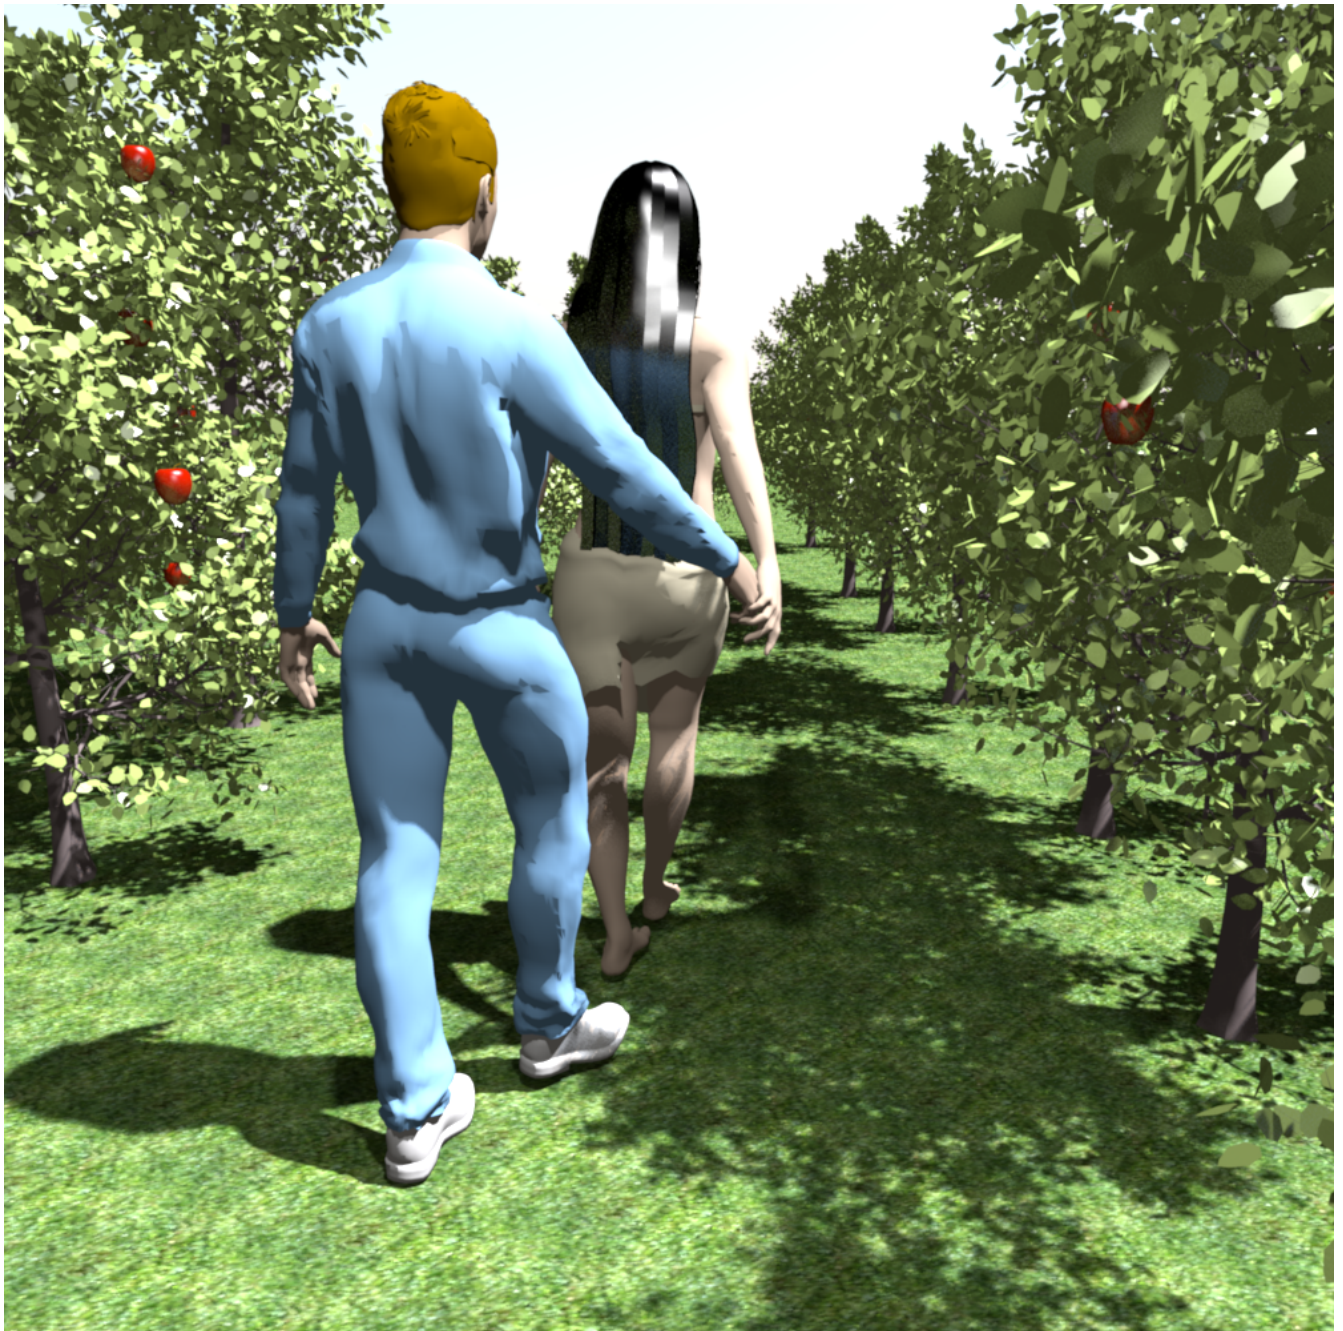

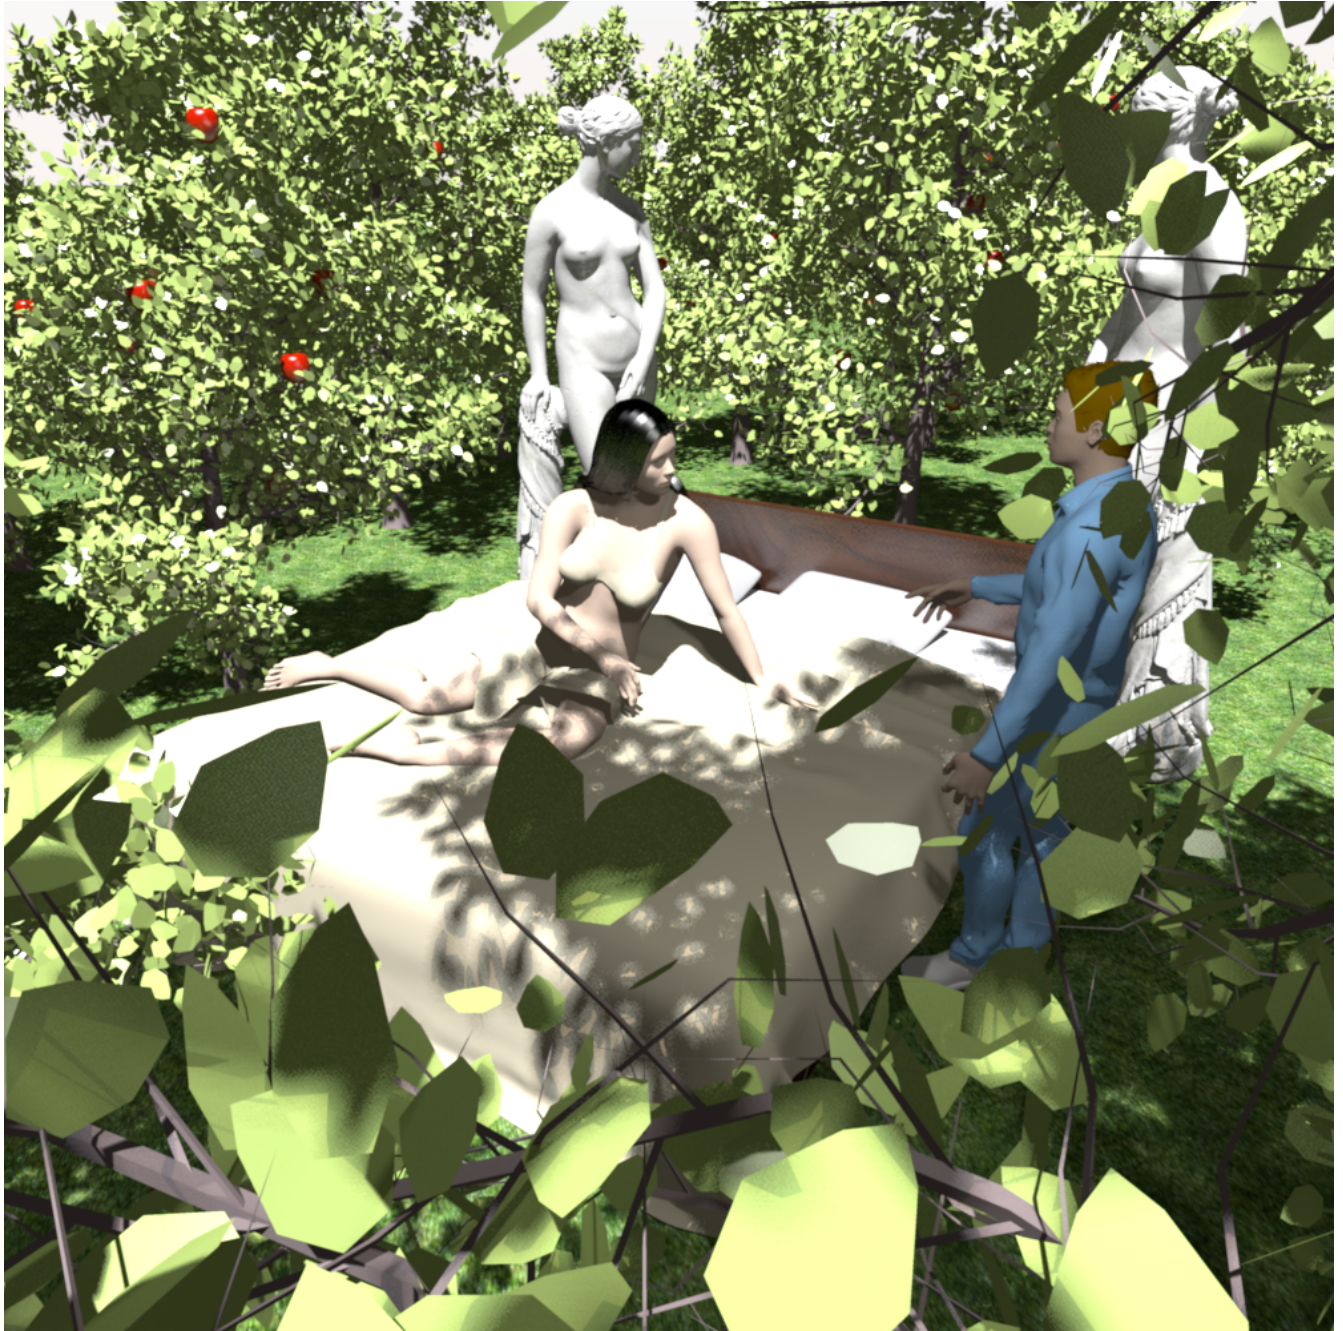

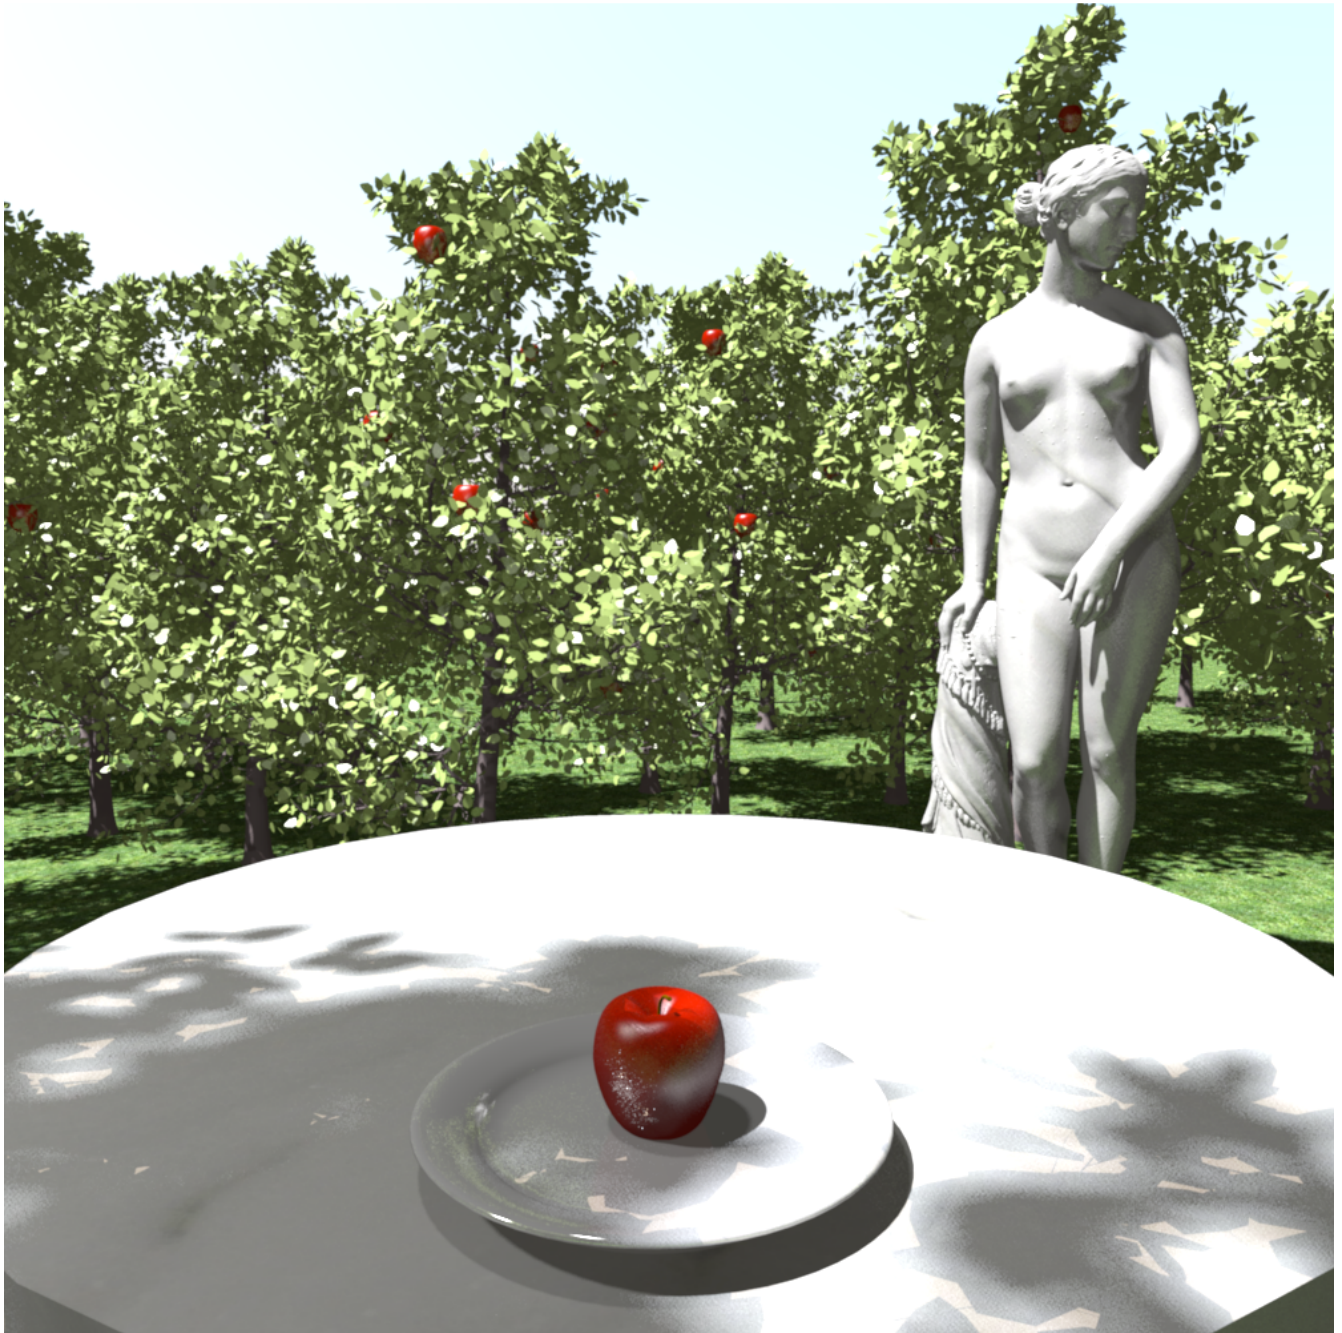

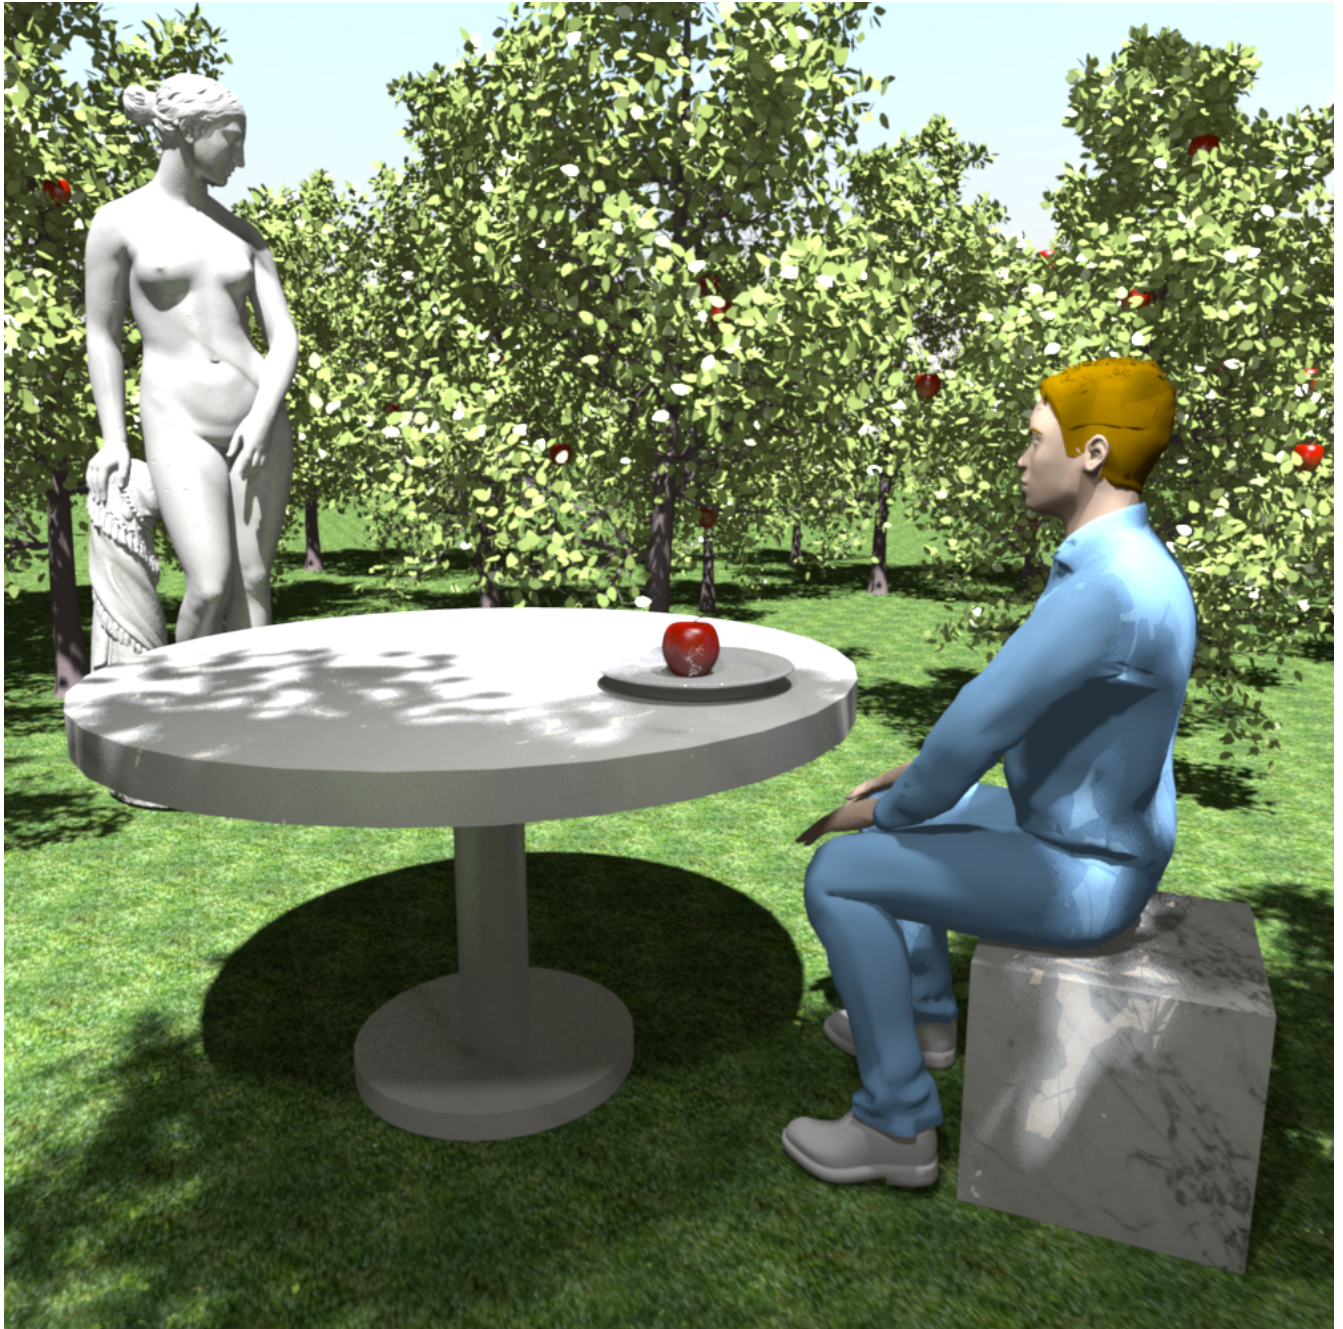

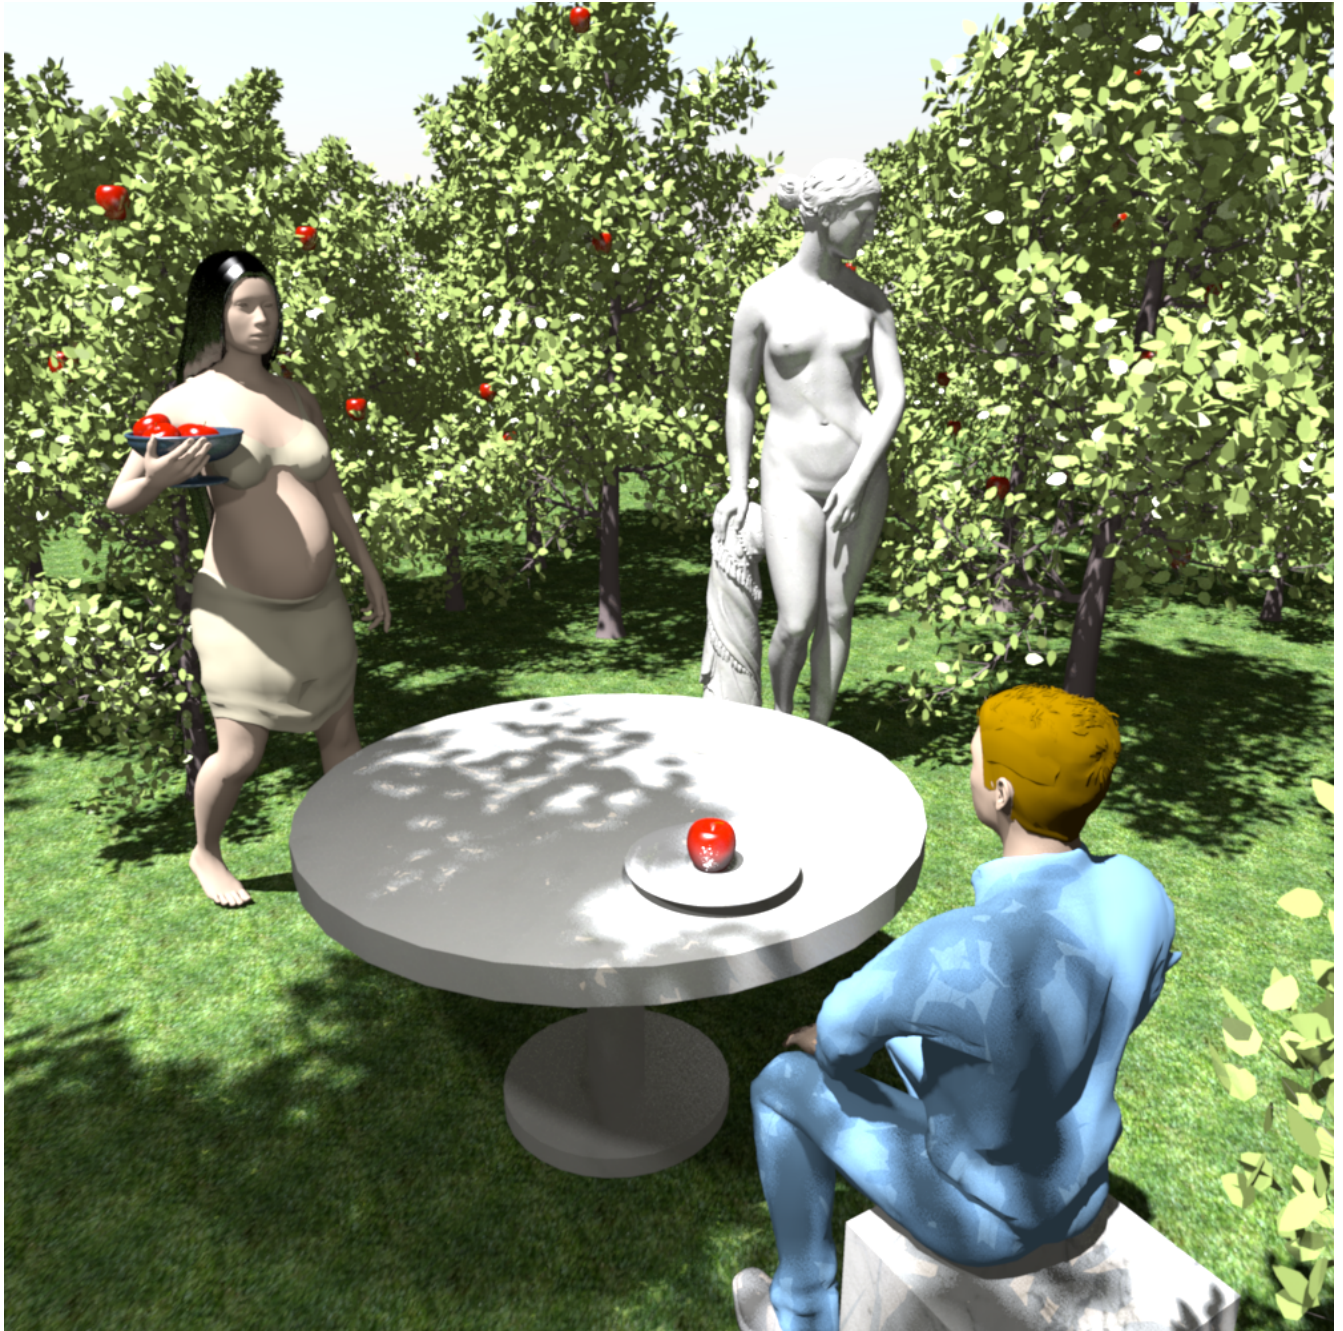

Later:

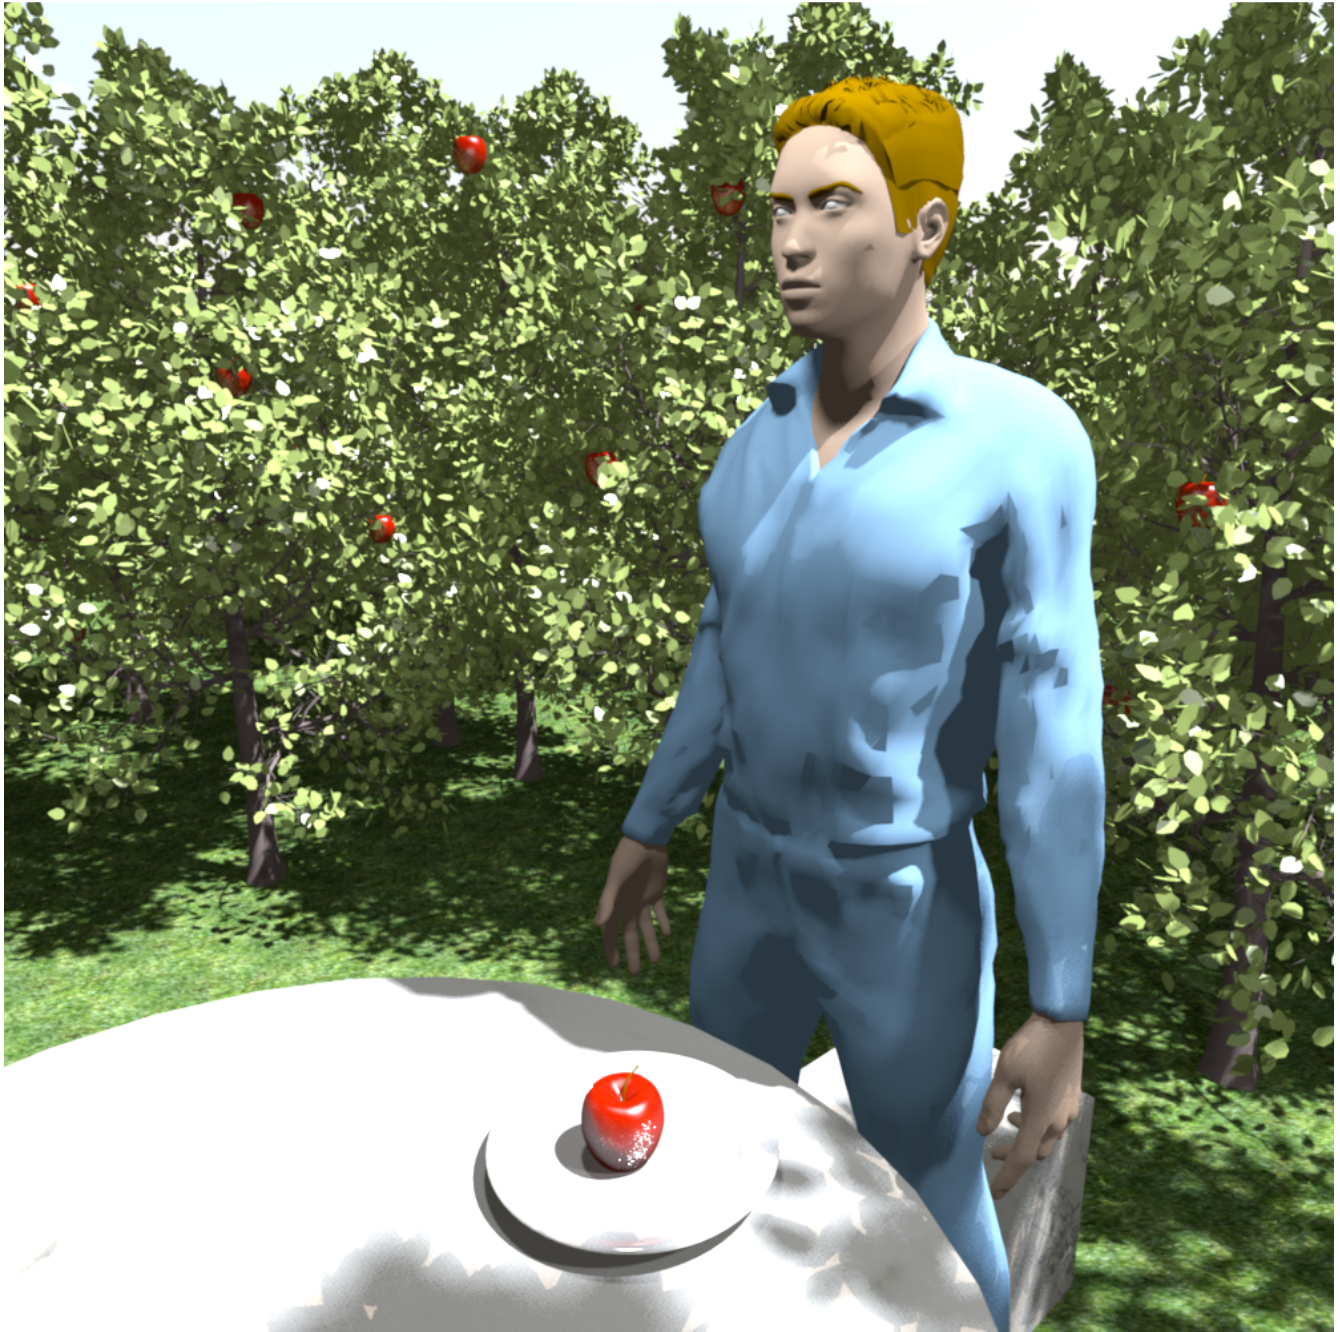

I'm going out for a walk

Oh!

It's you!

I missed you so much
